Of the Eclipses this year, 1698.

THERE will be but two Eclipses this Year, and they will be both of the SUN.

The first happens on the 31 day of March, 37 min. past 3 afternoon, in 21 degree 30 min. of Aries.

The Second happens on the 23 of September, 43 min. past 9 at night, in about 11 degree 11 min of Libra.

These will appear to be great Eclipses under and near to the Equinoctial Line, but to us Invisible.

There also happens this year several Remarkable Conjunctions and Aspects of the Planets, which may be taken notice of.

The first will be a Quartile Aspect of Saturn and Jupiter the 11 of May, h in 19 degr 28 min. of ♊ and 24 in 19 degr. 28 m of ♋ .

The second will be a Quartile Aspect of Saturn and Mars the 17 of August, h in 14 degr. of ♊ and 8 in 14 degr. of ♋ .

The third will be a Conjunction of Jupiter & Mars the 29 of August in 22 degr. of Scorpio, which may be seen in the Evening in the South-west sometime after Sun-set, if the weather permit.

The fourth will be a Conjunction of Saturn & Mars the 23 of December, in 18 degr. of Aquarius; and there will also be a Conjunction of Saturn and Venus the 23 day, and the 26 day a Conjunction of Mars & Venus, at which times they may all be seen in the South-west before an hour after setting of the Sun, if the air be clear.

The bright shining Planet Venus is our Morning Star, and Oriental this year, till the 6th. of April, and from thence Occidental and our Evening Star to the Years end.

" Astra regunt mundum: at sapiens dominabitur astris.

IF Stars do rule the World, strange fate I wis

" By direful Aspects then portended is;

" The prudent Soul yet mounts above the skye,

" And antedates Caelestial destiny.

" A word of advice to those whom it may concern.

HEr's how the Sun his course in's Circle goes:

" I write Celestial harmonie in prose:

" Because your Fancies 'twould be hard to hist,

" You may then judge according to your wits;

"The Planets set good faces on the matter
 "Then take it how you will, I would not flatter;
 "Now use't, and if Errataes you do find,
 "I give you leave to mend them to your mind,
 "If such there be, it is by oversight,
 "Believe me, I'd as live it should be right.
 "Thus right, or wrong, pray take it as it is,
 "But us't aright, and then you'll never miss.
